Dear President,

We have the honor of inviting you to participate in the first edition of the international Kombat Taekwondo event in France, titled Challenge Series KT011, which will take place from July 31 to August 2, 2025, in the exceptional setting of the Theatre de Verduze in Nice.

This large-scale event is exclusively reserved for the professional league. It will bring together high-level fighters from various countries. The local organization is assured by the Executive Council of Kombat Taekwondo France, supported by its entire operational team.

The Challenge KT011 promises to be an unforgettable evening, broadcast live on ESPN via Disney+, with media coverage provided by Mastaekwondo.com as well as all local media.

We would be honored to welcome you and your fighters to our country and to the beautiful city of Nice, to experience this extraordinary sporting event together.

The organization will take care of: hotel accommodation from July 30 to August 3, 2025, meals, and land transportation.

Awaiting to welcome you and to share this beautiful adventure together, please accept, Mr. President, our distinguished salutations.

EQUIPMENT

The Contestants are responsible for their own hand, ankle, foot wrapping/taping and the use of supportive soft braces. Event medical team and/or designated referee(s) will inspect each contestant before entering the competition area

Protective Gears

All protective equipment used during Kombat Taekwondo fights in major leagues must be provided by the competitors and must be of designated brand(s) approved by Kombat Taekwondo. The mandatory protective equipment includes: A. Mouthguard – Competitors must bring a mouthguard (single or double layer) of any color, suitable for high-impact, and of shock-absorbing type. A spare is mandatory. No competitor logos or marks should be visible on the mouthguard. B. Gloves – Kombat Taekwondo Major League gloves. C. Foot protectors – Kombat Taekwondo foot protectors. D. Groin protector - Suitable for mixed martial arts fighters, both men and women. Training groin protectors are not allowed. The female groin protector is optional but highly recommended. It must be worn under the uniform.

Official attire

Participants must wear an official outfit approved by the Kombat Taekwondo Events Commission. During the match, participants will only wear the attire authorized by Kombat Taekwondo France and a sports bra for female participants. Competitors may wear entrance/event clothing when entering the venue, but they must remove it once inside. The wearing of shoes or any other type of footwear, except for foot pads approved by Kombat Taekwondo, is not allowed during the competition. Coaches and other accompanying staff must wear sports clothing or a team or traditional uniform approved by the Kombat Taekwondo France Events Commission.

Appearance

Each competitor is required to maintain cleanliness and to be well-groomed, as well as to wear clean clothing and use clean equipment before the start of the match. No makeup, face or body paint, jewelry, or any piercing accessories are allowed during competition or exhibition. Only permanent tattoos will be permitted; paint made with ink or any other substance is not allowed. Competitors must have short fingernails and toenails, and they are not allowed to wear metallic objects or any other items that could potentially harm their opponent. Nail polish is permitted, but artificial nails are not allowed. A small amount of petroleum jelly is allowed for application only on the face. Referees will assess whether a competitor's hair poses a threat to their safety or that of their opponent before the match.

Entry of fighters

Participants may include the following elements: the use of national emblems, country flags, names, logos, nicknames, and labels of participants, but they must comply with the rules established by the Kombat Taekwondo event commission. In addition to choosing clothing, competitors have the option to choose an entrance fight song; however, it is essential to obtain approval from the Kombat Taekwondo France event commission.
